

Winchester Restaurants

In the northern part of the Shenandoah Valley, between the Blue Ridge Mountains and the Allegheny mountains is Winchester, Virginia. The natural beauty of the surroundings draws visitors to the area for events including the Shenandoah Apple Blossom Festival, and civil war battlefields attract history buffs.

This town is home to a number of outstanding restaurants to satisfy your hunger.

Here's a list of several choices close to the conference venue for you to try.

Union Jack Pub & Restaurant

Lovers of American and European craft beer, wine, and traditional British food should look no further than the Union Jack Pub & Restaurant on the historic downtown walking mall of Winchester. The draft beer list here is extensive, featuring locally brewed opens and loved European classics. For a truly authentic British meal, try the Guinness and steak pie, bangers and mash, or fish and chips.

Violino Ristorante Italiano

Upon entering Violino Ristorante Italiano, guests are overcome with the aromas of Italy and the exquisite sounds of opera and classical music. The family owning the restaurant emigrated from Italy, where they learned their culinary expertise. For an evening of relaxation or a special romantic occasion, Violino will impress, from the fresh bread to the carefully selected wine options. If you manage to save room for dessert, order the homemade tiramisu or gelato. Be sure to make reservations for a night that will immerse you in the finest Italian experience.

Snow White Grill

Sometimes nothing hits the spot like an all-American juicy burger or hot dog, and the best place for this in Winchester is the Snow White Grill. Those not in the mood for burgers or hot dogs have plenty of delicious alternatives, whether they're craving a jumbo corndog, steak and cheese sub, or pulled pork barbecue. Really hungry customers can also get shoestring fries or tater tots with chili and cheese. For the cherry on top of your meal, order a Snow White's Really Good Milkshake or a float with your favorite soda.

Joe's Steakhouse

Located in historic, downtown Winchester, just a block off the Old Town Walking Mall. Previously, the building had been divided in many smaller apartments, drawing away from the priceless historic value the building boasts. When Joseph T. Wobbe acquired the building, he opened the large staircase, reuniting the first floor to the rest of the building and restoring it to its original glory as a gorgeous Southern mansion. Rich with history, the Piccadilly Mansion may also be home to the ghost of Colonel George Patton, Sr., Confederate soldier and grandfather to famed WWII General George S. Patton. Victorian Charm & Modern Amenities The circa 1840s historic, Italianate designed building is a two-story restaurant that features three separate dining rooms along with a private, second story grand dining room which can easily accommodate up to 80 people.
